Vetch Seed And Inoculating Soil Are Now In Warehouses; Growers Receiving Notices; Farmers Urged To Pool All Their Cotton

The greatest tonnage of vetch seed bought by any county in the southern half of the state is now in Coffee County warehouses, ready to be checked out to growers. There are only two other counties in Alabama exceeding our tonnage of 35,000 lbs Dallas and Autauga. This speaks well for the interest and co-operation our Coffee County farmers have for winter legumes and the permanent up-building of their soils. Here's luck to all you fellows who will carefully follow directions which are being mailed you.

Farmers Are Urged To Pool Cotton And Fertilizer Orders Early.

In order that there may be no delay in farmers obtaining their soda, acid and muriate early next spring, the farm bureau requests that you mail your orders to the county office at once. A special letter is being mailed the farmers in this regard. Coffee County's quota in the Cotton Pool this year is 2500 bales and in the Fertilizer Purchase Pool 5000 tons. Will you help the county go over the top in these two undertakings which will mean the saving of a hundred thousand dollars to the farm families of Coffee County.

WILLIAM S. KELLER, PIONEER ENGINEER DIES AT HOME.

W. S. Keller, state highway engineer of Alabama, one of the pioneers in the good road movement in the state, organizer of the state highway department and in point of continuous service, the oldest state highway engineer in the United States died at his residence, 306 Felder avenue Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock, following an extended illness. His fight for life through the long weeks was against heavy odds, but it was a fight that was waged bravely and without complaint, until the last. He was 51 years of age.

Mr. Keller was Alabama's first state highway engineer. It was under his direction that Alabama's present state highway system was developed. As an engineer and as a man and citizen, he ranked among the highest. His achievement will be an inspiration to those who have followed him, as it has to those who have worked with him, and the roads and bridges in the building of which his was the guiding hand, will be a permanent monument to his memory.—Montgomery Advertiser.

POWER SERVICE HAS BEEN SOME BETTER THIS WEEK.

We were just about to write a nice long story bragging on the power service this week when all of a sudden it went off, (right after noon Wednesday) and as this is being written has not come back and may not be on again till 5:30 or 6:00 o'clock. But we will say that the service has been considerably better this week. We have had current practically all the time day and night and most of the time it has been strong enough to pull a motor satisfactorily.

We were about to get in a serious way at Elba last week when a representative of the Public Service Commission visited here. Our water supply is adequate but last week the power was so weak that the town pumps could not be run and the water was practically out. When this condition was found, the power company was instructed to furnish the town with power regardless of anything else, so the gins were cut off and the water pumps put to work and we understand that since then a full head of water is maintained.

We do not know how long the power service will be handicapped on account of low water, overloading, breakdowns, etc., but we shall be glad to see it return to its full time. In the meantime we will do the best we can. Some times we get the paper out on time and some times its a day or so late. We will just do the best we can. That's all.

Mrs. Tobe Rhodes was a visitor at Montgomery the first of the week.

Miss Mabel Middlebrooks spent the week end with home folks in Enterprise.

Mrs. A. J. Land, of Columbus, Ga., was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sanders last week.

Miss Reida Johnson, of Opp, was the guest of Elba friends the first of the week.

Miss Johnnie Shealey spent the week end in Brundidge with relatives.

S. A. MERRITT SHOT AND KILLED BY HIS TWO SONS SUNDAY.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 14.—S. A. Merritt, living near the Crenshaw county line was shot and killed Sunday afternoon by his two sons, Furman and Marshall Merritt, of Montgomery.

The two young men, after the killing, surrendered at the Montgomery county jail claiming they killed their father in self-defense. According to a report filed with Pat McQueen, sheriff of Crenshaw county, an argument took place in the room of Mrs. Merritt, mother of the two boys, during which a promiscuous firing started and Mr. Merritt was shot while going out the back way of his room. His dead body, it was stated in the sheriff's report, was found on the back porch of the house.

Another report is that Mr. Merritt objected to his two sons coming to the house to visit their sick mother, and when they arrived, pulled his pistol and started firing. One of the boys, it is said, tried to take the pistol away from his father and the fatal shot was fired during the scuffle, either from the father's pistol or from the pistol of one of the boys.

DORSEY BROTHERS SHOW-ING NEW MODEL FORD CAR.

Dorsey Brothers, local Ford and Fordson dealers, now have on display in their show room one of the new Model "T" Ford Touring cars, which has just been driven through from the Atlanta factory of the Ford company.

The design of the new Ford has been changed considerably, and the appearance is also changed. The touring car has an all-steel stream-line body, with extra heavy fenders. The seats are considerably wider and are set lower. It has a double-ventilating windshield, with the fuel tank under the cowl and the tool box under the front seat. Storm curtains open with all doors, and it is equipped with windshield wiper, polished nickel head lamp-rims, and four cord tires. The touring and roadster models are finished in black.

The closed models are finished in colors and have all upholstery and interior fittings to harmonize. These models are not yet on display here but are said to be very handsome cars. On account of the extreme dry weather which has affected all sections of the country, the Ford factory at Atlanta is only running about one-third time, and Dorsey Brothers as well as all other dealers are not able yet to secure car load shipments of the new model cars. They have many orders already booked, and will of course fill these as quickly as possible.

Dorsey Brothers have a large ad in today's paper inviting you to their show room to see the new model Ford touring car.

LIGHTNING KILLS YOUTH OF BIBB COUNTY.

Centerville, Ala., Sept. 10.—The breaking of the unprecedented dry spell in this section Wednesday night took its toll when a bolt of lightning struck the dwelling house of Henry McMillan, a white farmer residing on the Centerville and Marion pike about three miles southwest of Centerville. A fifteen-year-old son of the McMillan family was instantly killed by the stroke and another son badly shocked. A brick chimney of the house was demolished, and the house otherwise badly damaged. The lightning also struck quite a number of shade trees and light trees in this section. So far as known there was no hail in this community, although for longer than a half of an hour the clouds were threatening.

The long, severe drought destroyed thousands of red oak trees and saplings in this section, and the woods have the appearance of having something been swept by forest fires. This is something unknown heretofore in this county.

The farmer who doesn't have a machinery shed pays more than the cost of one in repairs and new machines.

SCHOOL COST IN ALABAMA

The cost of public education in the elementary and high schools of Alabama for 1921 was, for each child in average daily attendance, 21.5 cents for current expenses and 4.7 cents for capital outlay, a total of 26 cents for each child. If these figures had been calculated for each child enrolled the cost would have been 18 cents per day for each child. The average state of the Union during 1922 spent for each child an average daily attendance, 42 cents for each child. The highest amount spent for any state in 1922 was 89 cents per child attending, California, and the lowest amount 17 cents, Mississippi. In that year, 1922 Alabama spent 23 cents per child attending for all public elementary and high school expenditures by 3 cents per child attending since 1921-22 it is reasonable to suppose that other states have increased their expenditures also.

When we say that Alabama spent in 1924 $14,540,233 for her public elementary and high schools we are inclined to say that this is a large sum for schools, but when it is spread over the state to all the schools it appears very small. To think and talk in terms of millions of dollars is beyond the ability of most people, but to talk in terms of pennies is within the grasp of us all.

For this 26 cents a day per child attending school Alabama has provided the following: A teacher for every child, supervision of instruction for a part of the children, the service of county and city boards of education, the services of county and city superintendents of schools, janitors' supplies and janitors' services, teaching supplies and equipment, the maintenance of buildings and erection of new buildings, fuel, light, water and power for schools for some schools health officers and attendance officers, transportation of pupils in unsolicited school districts, libraries, insurance of school property, rents, interest, payments, etc.

If all the services named above have not been satisfactory or adequate, it is due principally to the fact that not enough money has been invested in the service. If the same kind of services are to be provided the increasing thousands of boys and girls seeking an education or if improvements are to be made in the services now being rendered, one of the first steps is to increase the revenue going to the support of schools.

BANKERS ASKED TO HELP POOL COTTON.

Auburn, Ala., Sept. 14.—In a letter sent to each banker in Alabama, Prof. L. N. Duncan, director of Extension, makes an earnest appeal to all bankers to encourage and support cooperative marketing of cotton on the ground that it will raise the general price level and stabilize the market.

Prof. Duncan reminded the bankers that the success of their business depends largely upon the price of cotton, and that the present price is approximately three cents a lb below that of a year ago, although the cotton in sight now is practically what it was a year ago. The European market is much

ALABAMA DROPS CASE OF SUPT. WHEELER.

Montgomery, Sept. 10.—The State of Alabama dismissed the proceedings against Jesse Wheeler, superintendent of education of Jackson county, when Wheeler appeared before Examiner McCall and showed cause why he shouldn't refund the $800 paid Sallie Caldwell when she taught in Jackson county and failed to read the Bible daily to her classes.

Wheeler technically violated the Bible reading law, said McCall, but proved it wasn't a moral violation. The case is ended.

FAIRFIELD POLICEMAN IS FOUND DEAD.

Birmingham, Sept. 9.—Apparently beaten over the head and then shot Police Officer 28 for the purpose of mapping and surveying grounds of New Brocton High School.

The New High School building at New Brocton situated on a gradual sloping hill furnishes one of the best buildings in the county for the work of the landscape gardener, whose services are furnished free by the Agricultural Extension Service at Auburn. We believe that with the splendid cooperation of the public spirited citizens of Brocton, the grounds around this school can be made as beautiful as any in the State.

Cotton Club Members Make Splendid Showing. Practically all the boys in the cotton club have made good yields this year. The members getting an early start and using the 700 lbs fertilizer mixture consisting of 400 lbs acid phosphate, 200 lbs nitrate of soda and 100 lbs muriate of potash have average a bale per acre. We want 200 boys in the cotton club another year, and now is the time to begin preparing your acres boys. First select a good field, and if cotton was grown on the land this year, turn under the stalks while they are still green. This will do away with all the weeds and you should not be bothered with boll weevils till after the frost of August. We recommend sowing vetch on your land intended for cotton next spring and scattering barn yard fertilizers on the growing vetch this winter. If the vetch is planted in October there will be a sufficient growth to enable you to turn your land the latter half of March and plant your cotton the first of April.

Farmers pooling cotton and placing orders for fertilizer now are helping to maintain a high average price for cotton and insuring cheaper and earlier fertilizers next spring. Co-operation along these lines will certainly make Coffee County many thousands of dollars. The cotton crop is shorter than expected and the demand greater therefore this is the time of times for farmers to pool their cotton.

After the first good rain is the time to plant hairy vetch seed.

Group Leaders of Farm Bureau Will Meet At Elba Friday Night For Business Session; Cotton Club Members Make Good Showing

For the purpose of conferring concerning plans and arrangements for an enlarged service of the farm bureau to the farmers of the county, and with special reference to the cooperative marketing of cotton and purchase of fertilizers, the 50 group leaders from all communities of the county will hold a meeting at the Brick Hotel in Elba Friday night Sept. 25.

Messrs. L. N. Duncan, Director of Agricultural Extension work in Alabama and M. H. Pearson Dist. Agent for South Alabama will be the principal speakers. Reports will be had from each leader as to the progress of farm bureau work in his particular community, and a general program formulated by all the leaders present for still greater service to the farmers of the county.

Landscape Gardener Will Help Lay Off Grounds at New Brocton.

A Govt. landscape gardener will meet with County Agent Arnold and W. H. Ward at New Brocton Monday Sept. 28 for the purpose of mapping and surveying grounds of New Brocton High School.

The New High School building at New Brocton situated on a gradual sloping hill furnishes one of the best buildings in the county for the work of the landscape gardener, whose services are furnished free by the Agricultural Extension Service at Auburn. We believe that with the splendid cooperation of the public spirited citizens of Brocton, the grounds around this school can be made as beautiful as any in the State.

Cotton Club Members Make Splendid Showing. Practically all the boys in the cotton club have made good yields this year. The members getting an early start and using the 700 lbs fertilizer mixture consisting of 400 lbs acid phosphate, 200 lbs nitrate of soda and 100 lbs muriate of potash have average a bale per acre. We want 200 boys in the cotton club another year, and now is the time to begin preparing your acres boys. First select a good field, and if cotton was grown on the land this year, turn under the stalks while they are still green. This will do away with all the weeds and you should not be bothered with boll weevils till after the frost of August. We recommend sowing vetch on your land intended for cotton next spring and scattering barn yard fertilizers on the growing vetch this winter. MRS. B. W. PAGE DIES IN DOTHAN HOSPITAL AFTER SHORT ILLNESS

The people of Elba were very deeply grieved on last Saturday morning when it became known that Mrs. B. W. Page was dead. Her death occurred late Friday night at Dothan hospital, where she underwent an operation on Wednesday.

Mrs. Page had been suffering for several years, but her condition was not thought to be so serious. Thursday, it is said, she seemed to have rallied from the operation and was resting nicely. Her condition grew worse during Thursday night and Friday, and death came Friday night. She was one of Elba's most highly esteemed women, and had been a resident here all her life. Friends throughout the entire town were made sad to learn of her death.

The body was brought back to Elba reaching here Saturday at noon. The funeral services were held at the family home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. F. M. Lowrey and Rev. W. T. Grider. Interment occurred at Evergreen cemetery.

The bereaved family has the sincere sympathy of scores of friends here.
